Statement of Our Core Values

Company Vision

To be the world leader in advanced precision dispensing solution.

Mission

We are passionate about delivering high performance and reliable precision liquid dispensing solution to support our customers' automated dispensing needs.

Values

1. Conduct Business with Trust and Integrity

Lead By Example

Leaders has the added responsibility for demonstrating, through their actions, the importance of this Code. In any business, ethical behaviour does not simply happen; it is the product of clear and direct communication of behavioural expectations, modelled from the top and demonstrated by example. Again, ultimately, our actions are what matters.

To make our Code work, managers must be responsible for promptly addressing ethical questions or concerns raised by employees and for taking the appropriate steps to deal with such issues. Managers should not consider employees' ethics concerns as threats or challenges to their authority, but rather as another encouraged form of business communication. At NSW Automation Sdn Bhd, we want the ethics dialogue to become a natural part of daily work.

Accountability

Each of us is responsible for knowing and adhering to the values and standards set forth in this Code and for raising questions if we are uncertain about company policy. If we are concerned whether the standards are being met or are aware of violations of the Code, we must contact the HR department.

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd takes seriously the standards set forth in the Code, and violations are cause for disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Accurate Public Disclosures

We will make certain that all disclosures made in financial reports and public documents are full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable. This obligation applies to all employees, including all financial executives, with any responsibility for the preparation for such reports, including drafting, reviewing and signing or certifying the information contained therein. No business goal of any kind is ever an excuse for misrepresenting facts or falsifying records.

Employees should inform Executive Management and the HR department if they learn that information in any filing or public communication was untrue or misleading at the time it was made or if subsequent information would affect a similar future filing or public communication.

Corporate Recordkeeping

We create, retain and dispose of our company records as part of our normal course of business in compliance with all NSW Automation Sdn Bhd policies and guidelines, as well as all regulatory and legal requirements.

All corporate records must be true, accurate and complete, and company data must be promptly and accurately entered in our books in accordance with NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's and other applicable accounting principles.

We must not improperly influence, manipulate or mislead any unauthorized audit, nor interfere with any auditor engaged to perform an internal independent audit of NSW Automation Sdn Bhd books, records, processes or internal controls.

Promote Substance Over Form

At times, we are all faced with decisions we would rather not have to make and issues we would prefer to avoid. Sometimes, we hope that if we avoid confronting a problem, it will simply go away.

At NSW Automation Sdn Bhd, we must have the courage to tackle the tough decisions and make difficult choices, secure in the knowledge that NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is committed to doing the right thing. At times this will mean doing more than simply what the law requires. Merely because we can pursue a course of action does not mean we should do so.

Although NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's guiding principles cannot address every issue or provide answers to every dilemma, they can define the spirit in which we intend to do business and should guide us in our daily conduct.

2. Uphold the Law

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's commitment to integrity begins with complying with laws, rules and regulations where we do business. Further, each of us must have an understanding of the company policies, laws, rules and regulations that apply to our specific roles. If we are unsure of whether a contemplated action is permitted by law or NSW Automation Sdn Bhd policy, we should seek the advice from the resource expert. We are responsible for preventing violations of law and for speaking up if we see possible violations.

Competition

We are dedicated to ethical, fair and vigorous competition. We will sell NSW Automation Sdn Bhd products and services based on their merit, functionality and safety, superior quality, competitive pricing and timely delivery. We will make independent pricing and marketing decisions and will not improperly cooperate or coordinate our activities with our competitors. We will not offer or solicit improper payments or gratuities in connection with the purchase of goods or services for NSW Automation Sdn Bhd or the sales of its products or services, nor will we engage or assist in unlawful boycotts of customers.

Proprietary Information

It is important that we respect the property rights of others. We will not acquire or seek to acquire improper means of a competitor's trade secrets or other proprietary or confidential information. We will not engage in unauthorized use, copying, distribution or alteration of software or other intellectual property.

Selective Disclosure

We will not selectively disclose (whether in one-on-one or small discussions, meetings, presentations, proposals or otherwise) any material non-public information with respect to NSW Automation Sdn Bhd, its securities, business operations, plans, financial condition, results of operations or any development plan. We should be particularly vigilant when making presentations or proposals to customers to ensure that our presentations do not contain material non-public information.

Health and Safety

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is dedicated to maintaining a healthy environment. A safety manual has been designed to educate you on safety in the workplace. If you do not have a copy of this manual, please see the HR department.

3. Respect for the Individual

One of the core values is to work as a team with Trust and Respect for each other. We strive to uphold open and honest communication and to protect employees from discrimination, harassment, or unsafe practise.

Build Trust and Credibility

The success of our business is dependent on the trust which created the confidence we earn from our employees, customers and stakeholders. We gain credibility by adhering to our commitments, displaying honesty and integrity and reaching company goals solely through honourable conduct. It is easy to say what we must do, but the proof is in our actions. Ultimately, we will be judged on what we do.

Create a Culture of Open and Honest Communication

At NSW Automation Sdn Bhd everyone should feel comfortable to speak his or her mind, particularly with respect to ethics concerns. Managers have a responsibility to create an open and supportive environment where employees feel comfortable raising such questions. We all benefit tremendously when employees exercise their power to prevent mistakes or wrongdoing by asking the right questions at the right times.

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd will investigate all reported instances of questionable or unethical behaviour. In every instance where improper behaviour is found to have occurred, the company will take appropriate action. We will not tolerate retaliation against employees who raise genuine ethics concerns in good faith.

Employees are encouraged, in the first instance, to address such issues with their direct superior or managers or the HR manager, as most problems can be resolved swiftly. If for any reason that is not possible or if an employee is not comfortable raising the issue with his or her manager or HR, NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's Directors does operate with an open-door policy.

Respect for the Individual

We all deserve to work in a positive work environment where we are treated with dignity and respect. NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is committed to creating such an environment because it brings out the full potential in each of us, which, in turn, contributes directly to our business success. We cannot afford to let anyone's talents go to waste.

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is an equal employment/affirmative action employer and is committed to providing a workplace that is free of discrimination of all types and from abusive, offensive or harassing behaviour. Any employee who feels harassed or discriminated against should report the incident to his or her manager or to human resources executive and/or manager.

All NSW Automation Sdn Bhd employees are also expected to support an inclusive workplace by adhering to the following conduct standards:

- Always treat others with dignity and respect.
- Address and report inappropriate behaviour and comments that are discriminatory, harassing, abusive, offensive or unwelcome.

- Foster teamwork and employee participation, encouraging the representation of different employee perspectives.
- Seek out insights from employees with different experiences, perspectives and backgrounds.
- Avoid slang or idioms that might not translate across cultures.
- Support flexible work arrangements for co-workers with different needs, abilities and/or obligations.
- Confront the decisions or behaviours of others that are based on conscious or unconscious biases.
- Be open-minded and listen when others provide and/or give constructive feedback regarding their perception of your conduct.

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd will not tolerate discrimination, harassment or any behaviour or language that is abusive, offensive or unwelcome.

4. Avoid Conflicts of Interest

Conflicts of Interest

We must avoid any relationship or activity that might impair, or even appear to impair, our ability to make objective and fair decisions when performing our jobs. At times, we may be faced with situations where the business actions we take on behalf of NSW Automation Sdn Bhd may conflict with our own personal or family interests. We owe a duty to NSW Automation Sdn Bhd to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises. We must never use NSW Automation Sdn Bhd property or information for personal gain or personally take for ourselves any opportunity that is discovered through our designation with NSW Automation Sdn Bhd.

Stated below some other ways in which conflicts of interest could arise:

1. Being employed (you or a close family member) by, or acting as a consultant to, a competitor or potential competitor, supplier or contractor, regardless of the nature of the employment, while you are employed with NSW Automation Sdn Bhd.
2. Hiring or supervising family members or closely related persons.
3. Serving as a board member for an outside commercial company or organization.
4. Owning or having a substantial interest in a competitor, supplier or contractor.
5. Having a personal interest, financial interest or potential gain in any NSW Automation Sdn Bhd transaction.
6. Placing company business with a firm owned or controlled by a NSW Automation Sdn Bhd employee or his or her family.
7. Accepting gifts, discounts, favours or services from a customer/potential customer, competitor or supplier, unless equally available to all NSW Automation Sdn Bhd employees.

Determining whether a conflict of interest exists is not always easy to do. Employees with a conflict-of-interest question should seek advice from NSW's management. Before engaging in any activity, transaction or relationship that might give rise to a conflict of interest, employees must seek review from their managers or the HR department.

Gifts, Gratuities and Business Courtesies

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is committed to competing solely on the merit of our products and services. We should avoid any actions that create a perception that favourable treatment of outside entities by NSW Automation Sdn Bhd was sought, received or given in exchange for personal business courtesies. Business courtesies include gifts, gratuities, meals, refreshments, entertainment or other benefits from persons or companies with whom NSW Automation Sdn Bhd does or may do business. We will neither give nor accept business courtesies that constitute, or could reasonably be perceived as constituting, unfair business inducements that would violate law, regulation or policies of NSW Automation Sdn Bhd or customers, or would cause embarrassment or reflect negatively on NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's reputation.

Accepting Business Courtesies

Most business courtesies offered to us in the course of our employment are offered because of our designation at NSW Automation Sdn Bhd. We should not feel any entitlement to accept and keep a business courtesy. Although we may not use our designation at NSW Automation Sdn Bhd to obtain business courtesies, and we must never ask for them, we may accept unsolicited business courtesies that promote successful working relationships and good will with the firms that NSW Automation Sdn Bhd maintains or may establish a business relationship with.

Employees who award contracts or who can influence the allocation of business, who create specifications that result in the placement of business or who participate in negotiation of contracts must be particularly careful to avoid actions that create the appearance of favouritism or that may adversely affect the company's reputation for impartiality and fair dealing. The prudent course is to refuse a courtesy from a supplier when NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is involved in choosing or reconfirming a supplier or under circumstances that would create an impression that offering courtesies is the way to obtain NSW Automation Sdn Bhd business.

Meals, Refreshments and Entertainment

We may accept occasional meals, refreshments, entertainment and similar business courtesies that are given with the person who has offered to pay for the meal or entertainment, provided that:

- They are not inappropriately lavish or excessive.
- The courtesies are not frequent and do not reflect a pattern of frequent acceptance of courtesies from the same person or entity.
- The courtesy does not create the appearance of an attempt to influence business decisions, such as accepting courtesies or entertainment from a supplier whose contract is expiring in the near future.
- The employee accepting the business courtesy would not feel uncomfortable discussing the courtesy with his or her manager or co-worker or having the courtesies known by the public.

Gifts

Employees may accept unsolicited gifts, other than money, that conform to the reasonable ethical practices of the marketplace, including:

- Flowers, fruit baskets and other modest presents that commemorate a special occasion.
- Gifts of nominal value, such as calendars, pens, mugs, caps and t-shirts (or other novelty, advertising or promotional items).

Generally, employees may not accept compensation, honoraria or money of any amount from entities with whom NSW Automation Sdn Bhd does or may do business. Tangible gifts (including tickets to a sporting or entertainment event) that have a market value greater than RM50 may not be accepted unless approval is obtained from management.

Employees with questions about accepting business courtesies should talk to their managers or the HR department.

Offering Business Courtesies

Any employee who offers a business courtesy must assure that it cannot reasonably be interpreted as an attempt to gain an unfair business advantage or otherwise reflect negatively upon NSW Automation Sdn Bhd. An employee may never use personal funds or resources to do something that cannot be done with NSW Automation Sdn Bhd resources. Accounting for business courtesies must be done in accordance with approved company procedures.

Other than to our government customers, for whom special rules apply, we may provide nonmonetary gifts (i.e., company logo apparel or similar promotional items) to our customers. Further, management may approve other courtesies, including meals, refreshments or entertainment of reasonable value, provided that:

- The practice does not violate any law or regulation or the standards of conduct of the recipient's organization.
- The business courtesy is consistent with industry practice, is infrequent in nature and is not lavish.
- The business courtesy is properly reflected on the books and records of NSW Automation Sdn Bhd.

5. Protect Company Assets and Intellectual Properties

Confidential and Proprietary Information

Integral to NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's business success is our protection of confidential company information, as well as non-public information entrusted to us by employees, customers and other business partners. Confidential and proprietary information includes such things as pricing and financial data, customer names/addresses or non-public information about other companies, including current or potential supplier and vendors. We will not disclose confidential and non-public information without a valid business purpose and proper authorization.

Use of Company Resources

Company resources, including time, material, equipment and information, are provided for company business use. Nonetheless, occasional personal use is permissible as long as it does not affect job performance or cause a disruption to the workplace.

NSW CODE OF ETHICS AND BUSINESS CONDUCT

Employees and those who represent NSW Automation Sdn Bhd are trusted to behave responsibly and use good judgment to conserve company resources. Managers are responsible for the resources assigned to their departments and are empowered to resolve issues concerning their proper use.

Generally, we will not use company equipment such as computers, copiers and fax machines in the conduct of an outside business or in support of any religious, political or other outside daily activity, except for company-requested support to non-profit organizations. We will not solicit contributions nor distribute non-work-related materials during work hours.

In order to protect the interests of the NSW Automation Sdn Bhd network and our fellow employees, NSW Automation Sdn Bhd reserves the right to monitor or review all data and information contained on an employee's company-issued computer or electronic device, the use of the Internet or NSW Automation Sdn Bhd's intranet. We will not tolerate the use of company resources to create, access, store, print, solicit or send any materials that are harassing, threatening, abusive, sexually explicit or otherwise offensive or inappropriate.

Questions about the proper use of company resources should be directed to your manager.

Media Inquiries

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd is a high-profile company in our community, and from time to time, employees may be approached by reporters and other members of the media. In order to ensure that we speak with one voice and provide accurate information about the company, we should direct all media inquiries to the Marketing or Human Resources Executives. No one may issue a press release without first consulting with the Marketing or Human Resources Executives.

Reminders

The Code serves as our guide for conducting business with integrity. It is not an employment contract and confers no right relating to employment.

The Code is not a complete list of company rules and regulation. The employees are expected to know and comply with all company rules and regulation related to the job. Violation of these guidelines may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

NSW Automation Sdn Bhd may amend the code from time to time deems necessary or appropriate.
